Dear [REDACTED]

STAT

I wish to extend to you and your children my deepest personal sympathy at the loss of your husband and to offer to you my services and those of Dick's colleagues to assist in any way possible during this difficult time. Although Dick had only recently joined the Agency, [REDACTED]

STAT

[REDACTED] had the highest respect for and confidence in him. We are all very proud of Dick and the excellence with which he served. We will always remember him as the warm and compassionate man that he was and honor his memory. I hope that you will derive some comfort in knowing that he served his country and the Agency well.

Sincerely,

William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence
